

The 6th of January is paid as a special holiday

Dear colleagues, we want to inform you that this coming January the 6th is not regarded as a bank holiday. The explanation is as follows: in the year 2019, there are 14 bank holidays (already established), without taking into account the day of Kings (Epiphany), because of that this 2019 January, the 6th is not a bank holiday.

Nonetheless the collective agreement establishes that the day 6th of January is a special holiday (festivo especial), as January the 1st and December the 25th.

Do not think that it is a gift that we received from the company. It had to be denounced before the Supreme Court, because the trade association did not want to pay the special holiday when they fall on Sunday.

So, how does that concerns us? Well, if we had the "luck" to be chosen to cover the service that day, we will receive the surcharge for special holiday that is established in the collective agreement tables, in addition to the compensation of a paid day off. Yes, only if we have to work, if not, the day of Kings will be paid as any other Sunday.
